

PETER NORTHOUSE OUTSTANDING TEACHING AWARD INFORMATION

This award, sponsored by Dr. Peter Northouse, recognizes an ALE member for their contribution to advancing leadership education through outstanding teaching and learning.

Eligibility: Nominees must meet the following eligibility criteria.

- Applicants must be ALE members in good standing at time of award application submission.
- Applicants must have achieved 5 years of professional service in their respective field.
- Applicants may not have already received this award in the last 10 years.
- Applicants must provide two letters of recommendations (one being the nominator, if not self-nominated). One is strongly preferred to be from an ALE member, and the other can be from a colleague/supervisor/former or current student.
- Applicants must demonstrate innovative and quality teaching and learning practice.
- Applicants should be employed in a professional role that includes at least 50% teaching.

Application Form: This application should be submitted in the form of a self-nomination letter (2 pages maximum), Curriculum Vitae, and letters of reference (all submitted as a single PDF file).

Self-nomination letter should address the following criteria:

- An overview of applicant's teaching and learning context, program, or community
- Overview of teaching philosophy
- Example of effective classroom teaching and learning practice (innovative instruction or assessment)
- Example of non-classroom teaching practice (e.g., advising student organizations)
- Pursuit of professional development in the area of leadership teaching and learning

The recommendation letters should provide support by addressing:

1. Nature of relationship to applicant
2. Reflection on applicant's scholarly contributions that advance leadership education research, teaching, and practice
3. Other relevant information

Selection: One recipient will be selected by the ALE Awards and Recognition Committee.

Presentation: Award will consist of a $500 honorarium sponsored by Dr. Peter Northouse, a recognition item (determined by the committee), and recognition at the annual Conference.

All applications due by 11:59 pm (PDT), Monday, April 22, 2019.

Submit application including all documents listed above as one PDF file through the online Awards Application portal.
