

Research Manuscript Review Rubric

Association of Leadership Educators
Annual Conference

Review Criteria	Rating
	1 Strongly Disagree	2 Disagree	3 Neither Agree nor Disagree	4 Agree	5 Strongly Agree
Intellectual Merit of the Proposal
This proposal advances knowledge and understanding within the field of leadership education
This proposal is compelling and would have positive implications for conference attendees
Proposal Content
Session learning/participant objectives are clear and reasonable
The purpose of the study (including relevant research question(s) and/or hypotheses) is clearly presented and appropriate for the audience
The literature review is relevant, accurate, and thorough to provide an appropriate background about the study
The methods are presented clearly and are methodologically rigorous and appropriate to address the study's purpose/research question(s)
The findings are presented logically, thoroughly, and accurately (taking into consideration the applied method)
Conclusions and recommendations are appropriate (considering the study's findings), thorough, aligned with the study's purpose
Clarity
The proposal is clearly written and organized (English grammar rules and mechanics are followed, spelling is accurate, etc.)
The proposal utilizes language that is free of bias
APA (7 th edition) is utilized (references are properly cited, table and figures are formatted correctly (if appropriate), etc.)
Final Proposal Rating	1 Definitely Do Not Accept	2 Probably Do Not Accept	3 Either Accept or Do Not Accept	4 Probably Accept	5 Definitely Accept